Limitations for scope text

According to the certification requirements (e.g. of ISO, IAF or DAkkS), the following restrictions apply to the scope of a certificate:

In the scope text of a certificate, any indication of

- locations or sites or
- norms, standards, laws, directives, regulations, guidelines etc. (including parts thereof);

is not permitted - unless provided for by the applicable certification requirements (e.g. ISO 27006).

In the case of certificates according to ISO 9001, the scope text must not contain information on services for the provision of which accreditation is provided, i.e. the mention of

- certification services, laboratory services or inspection activities or
- testing, calibration, non-destructive testing, certification of electrical installations and/or electrical and mechanical equipment and accessories, environmental testing etc.

is not permitted.

Information from the customer

The audit team has discussed this document and prepared the first page in close cooperation.

We are aware of our responsibility for the information we provide to TÜV NORD CERT on the following pages.

We know that this information will be assessed and verified by TÜV NORD CERT bodies and that any discrepancies must be clarified.

Company logo

☒ Yes, I wish my company logo on the certificate. I provide this to the auditor as a corresponding image file (TIF, JPG, CDR, GIF, BMP) with this order form.

Sub-certificates vs. location listing in the appendix

Information on other locations that may be available and sub-certificates can be stated on following pages of this form. Please note:

- if you require separate certificates for sites (sub-certificates), it is absolutely necessary to provide appropriate information on quantities and formats;
- if a format and quantity specification is missing, sub-locations are just listed in an annex to the main certificate.

☐ Yes, I provide all scopes and company names - especially in languages with non-Latin characters - as an original Word file to the auditor using this order form.

The pdf certificate file should be submitted to the following e-mail address: quality@nihva.com
