IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption

Document reference: IGP 11

Issue date:
1st October 2012

Revision date:
n/a

Version:
Version 1.0

Related master documents:
IKEA Group Code of Conduct

Issued by:
Management Board of Ingka Holding B.V.

Content owner:
IKEA Group Risk & Compliance Manager

Applicability:
IKEA Group
(Ingka Holding B.V. and all its controlled entities)

SUMMARY:

Trust, integrity and honesty are key values of the IKEA Group. Corruption is contradictory to the objective of doing good business. It damages the confidence our co-workers, suppliers, customers and other stakeholders have in IKEA.

The IKEA Group has zero tolerance towards corruption in any form.

IKEA Group Policy 11 on Anti Corruption

1. Policy scope and objective

The IKEA Group requires that all co-workers and business partners shall comply with relevant laws and regulations when conducting business; however this policy and the corresponding standard may go beyond such laws, regulations and regulations.

The objective of this policy is to define the IKEA Group Standpoint on corruption.

The IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption is applicable to the IKEA Group co-workers and the IKEA Group business partners.

2. Definitions

Corruption is the misuse of an official duty for unofficial and undue personal advantages or advantages to others. Corruption also includes fraud and bribery as well as benefits, favours and omissions which are considered illegal, unethical or a breach of trust.

Facilitation Payment is a payment to a government official to facilitate a service or activity which the public official is legally obliged to perform without such payment.

3. Policy standpoint

Trust, integrity and honesty are key values of the IKEA Group. Corruption is contradictory to the objective of doing good business. It damages the confidence our co-workers, suppliers, customers and other stakeholders have in IKEA. Furthermore, corruption undermines the rule of law, distorts markets, and denies the many people their rightful share of resources.

The IKEA Group has zero tolerance towards corruption in any form.

- No one, co-worker or business partner, acting on behalf of the IKEA Group or with whom the IKEA Group has a relation (including suppliers, vendors and contractors) may directly or indirectly request, offer, pay, accept or receive bribes or conduct other corrupt practices.
- The IKEA Group does not allow any form of facilitation payments.
- The IKEA Group co-workers do not ask for gifts or hospitality and are strongly advised not to accept and/or provide gifts or hospitality from or to any business partner or third party. If and when the IKEA Group accepts or provides gifts this is done in a transparent and approved way.

Non compliance with this policy by co-workers shall result in internal disciplinary action and may lead to termination of employment contract and possibly to legal prosecution.

Any act by an IKEA business partner contravening the content or intent of this policy may prompt the termination of the business relation.

IKEA®

Reg. IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption

To all potential business partners,

We hereby inform you of the IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption, which is attached to this document and applies to all contracts entered into by or on behalf of the IKEA Group. The IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption is intended to prevent all forms of corruption.

All our staff members are aware of this policy and know that any breach thereof may result in disciplinary action. We encourage you and your associates to report to IKEA Group any attempts made by a member of our staff to obtain any undue advantages from your company or any other behaviour contrary to the attached IKEA Group Policy on Anti-Corruption.

In addition to the prohibitions stated in the IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption, conflicts of interests must be avoided. A conflict of interest occurs when an individual or organization is involved in multiple interests, one of which could possibly corrupt the motivation to act in the interest of the IKEA Group. Any potential conflict of interest must be disclosed immediately.

Any violation of the IKEA Group Policy on Anti Corruption will constitute a material breach of contract, which may result in the enforcement of IKEA Group´s rights as stated in the relevant contract or agreement, as well as taking any appropriate legal action the IKEA Group may see fit to safeguard its interests, including, but not limited to, immediately terminating said contract or agreement.

Please confirm that you have read and understood the above statements and agree to comply with them as well as with the attached policy by signing this document and returning a signed copy of it to the IKEA Group at the address provided to you. Please keep a signed copy of this document for your records.

_____
Authorized signature & name:

Company:

Location:

Date: